

Camp RAVE is made possible by:

Purdue Extension Vigo County Office, Chances for Indiana Youth, Vectren, & Duke Energy

Purdue University is an equal opportunity/equal access/affirmative action institution.

Purdue University/Chances for Youth provides reasonable accommodations that allow otherwise qualified applicants with disabilities to perform the essential functions of a position. Reasonable accommodations will be made unless such accommodations have the end result of placing an undue burden on the operations of the University and Chances for Indiana Youth. Applicants needing accommodations should contact the Purdue Extension Service and Chances for Youth.

CAMP RAVE

A summer camp collaboration between

WHAT?

CAMP RAVE is a fun-filled week or summer of educational and recreational activities, including swimming, environmental discovery, nutrition, games, crafts, snacks, songs and field trips!

CAMP RAVE is open to any Vigo County youngster who has just completed Kindergarten through fifth grade. This camp is designed for students that are self-sufficient.

Campers are supervised by a trained staff of college-aged counselors whose primary goal is to provide a fun and safe day-camp experience at CAMP RAVE. We place 10 campers per counselor.

WHERE?

Booker T. Washington Community Center
1101 South 13th Street, Terre Haute, Indiana

WHEN?

Monday through Friday

7:45 AM—4:00 PM

Extended times available, please call for details

Lunch will be provided for the campers.

HOW?

A private bus will transport the campers from their school of origin to camp and back each day.

Campers from these outlying areas are welcome to sign up for the next most conveniently located school and parents may deliver them there to ride the bus to camp.

HOW MUCH?

$20.00 for the week— includes a hot lunch, activities and field trips

Details

Each student is invited to attend camp for one week or the entire summer.

Any student enrolled in the Vigo County School Corporation, private school or who lives in Vigo County and is home-schooled is welcome to join us at CAMP RAVE.

Simply choose which week you would like to attend (private/home-school select public school district), and meet the bus at one of the schools listed for the week. Each camper must bring his/her swimsuit and towel. A list of rules will be sent with your confirmation notice.
